

Asics MAVS 2009-2010 Team Descriptions

11-Blue

This team will be comprised of fourth and fifth graders. The expectation is that players on this team will be developed to play on 12s teams the following season. Team fees will be $750. This team will practice three times every two weeks and play in five to six local tournaments. The season will end in mid-March.

12-Blue

This team will be comprised of all sixth graders. These players will be the top 10 eligible players available and be expected to fill spots on 13-Blue team the following year. Team fees will be $1,900. This team will practice an average of six hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (four to five of which will be travel), and be expected to qualify and attend Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in June.

12-Molten

This team will be comprised of mostly sixth graders with one or two fifth graders if available. These players will be expected to fill spots on the 12s and 13s teams the following year. Team fees will be approximately $1,475. The team will practice an average of five hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (one or two of which will be travel), and accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

12-White

This team will be comprised of eight to nine fifth graders and potentially one or two sixth graders. These fifth graders will be targeted for development into 12s players the following year. Team fees will be $1,400 which will include an average of three and one half hours of practice per week, nine gold tournaments (one or two of which will be travel), and accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

13-Blue

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 13 and under division. These players will be the top 10 seventh graders available and be expected to fill spots on 14s teams the following year. Four to six positions will be offered to players prior to tryouts. Team fees will be $2,000. This team will practice six hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (four to five of which will be travel, including AAU Championship), and be expected to qualify and attend Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in June.

13-Molten

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 13 and under division. These players will draw from all MAVS 12s teams and tryouts in November. One or two positions may be offered prior to tryouts. Team fees will be $1,625. This team will practice an average of five hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (two to three of which will be travel), and will accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

13-White

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 13 and under division. These players will generally draw from the MAVS 12s teams and tryouts in November. Team fees will be approximately $1,600. This team will practice an average of three and one half hours per week, play in nine total tournaments all which will be gold. This team will accept a bid to JOVC based on team consensus.

Asics MAVS 2009-2010 Team Descriptions

14-Blue

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 14 and under division. These players will be the top 10 eighth graders available and be expected to fill spots on 15s teams the following year. Six to eight positions will be offered to players prior to tryouts. Team fees will be approximately $2,000. This team will practice six hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (four to five of which will be travel, including AAU Championships), and be expected to qualify in the Open division and attend Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in June.

14-Molten

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 14 and under division. These players will draw from all MAVS 13s teams and tryouts in November. Three to four positions may be offered prior to tryouts. Team fees will be $1,625. This team will practice an average of five hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (two to three of which will be travel), and will accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

14-White

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 14 and under division. These players will generally draw from the MAVS 13s teams and tryouts in November. Team fees will be $1,600. This team will practice an average of three and one half hours per week, play in nine total tournaments some of which will be gold some will be silver (one or two travel events). This team will accept a bid to JOVC based on team consensus.

15-Blue

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 15 and under division. These players will be the top 10 ninth graders available and be expected to fill spots on 16s teams the following year. This team is currently full for the 2009-10 season. Team fees will be approximately $1,990. This team will practice six hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (four to five of which will be travel), and be expected to qualify in the Open division and attend Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in June.

15-Molten

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 15 and under division. These players will draw from all MAVS 14s teams and tryouts in November. Three to four positions may be offered prior to tryouts. Team fees will be approximately $1,625. This team will practice two to three times per week, play in nine gold tournaments (two to three of which will be travel), and will accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

15-White

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 15 and under division. These players will generally draw from the MAVS 14s teams and tryouts in November. Team fees will be approximately $1,600. This team will practice an average of three and one half hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (one or two travel events). This team will accept a bid to JOVC based on team consensus.

Asics MAVS 2009-2010 Team Descriptions

16-Blue

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 16 and under division. These players will be the top 10 sophomores available and be expected to fill spots on 17s teams the following year. Six to eight positions will be offered to players prior to tryouts. Team fees will be $1,990. This team will practice six hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (four to five of which will be travel), and be expected to qualify in the Open division and attend Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in June.

16-Molten

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 16 and under division. These players will draw from all MAVS 15s teams and tryouts in November. Three to four positions may be offered prior to tryouts. Team fees will be approximately $1,625. This team will practice an average of five hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (two to three of which will be travel), and will accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

17-Blue

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 17 and under division. These players will be the top 10 juniors available and be expected to fill spots on 18-1 team the following year. Six to eight positions will be offered to players prior to tryouts. Team fees will be $1,990. This team will practice six hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (four to five of which will be travel), and be expected to qualify in the Open division and attend Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in June.

17-Molten

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 17 and under division. These players will draw from all MAVS 16s teams and tryouts in November. Three to four positions may be offered prior to tryouts. Team fees will be $1,700. This team will practice an average of five hours per week, play in nine gold tournaments (two to three of which will be travel), and will accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.

17-White

This team will be comprised of nine participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 17 and under division. This team is currently full and not looking to add players to the roster. Team fees will be $1,525. This team will practice an average of five hours per week, play in seven events (one travel event) and will not seek a bid to JOVC.

18-Blue

This team will be comprised of 10 participants that meet USA Volleyball guidelines for the 18 and under division. These players will be the top 10 seniors available. Generally speaking all 17-1 players are invited to be on this team. This team is currently not looking for any players. Team fees will be approximately $1,750. This team will practice an average of four hours per week, play in seven gold tournaments (two to three of which will be travel), and will accept a bid to JOVC if it is available.